

2025 FRS Scholarship Program

The Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) awards scholarships annually to graduating high school students for their first year of college or vocational school. All applicants require partnership with an NTCA–The Rural Broadband Association member company to be eligible.

FRS has awarded more than $1 million in scholarships since its inception, empowering students across the country to advance their communities with invaluable skill sets and experiences.

In cooperation with NTCA–The Rural Broadband Association and its members, FRS seeks to sustain and enhance the quality of life in America by advancing an understanding of rural issues. Through various programs and initiatives, FRS strongly supports the continuing education of rural youth.

How to apply for FRS Scholarships:

1. Identify the NTCA Member in your community. It is likely your telephone or internet provider.
2. Visit www.frs.org/programs/youth-programs/scholarships to find a link to the scholarship platform, Kaleidoscope. You must access the application via the Kaleidoscope link on the FRS website.

Applications close on February 14, 2025

All scholarship awards are paid directly to the educational institution the student will be attending.
